

Bringing USF to You Edition 1

December 2014

As a valued member of the Fr. John Lo Schiavo Legacy Society, we thought you would enjoy a clip from the twenty-eighth Presidential Inauguration.

USF INAUGURATES THE 28TH PRESIDENT

Paul J. Fitzgerald, S.J., was sworn into office as USF's 28th president on November 1, 2014 and was one of the largest university celebrations in nearly a decade. Hundreds descended on campus for the festivities, including U.S. House Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi, Lieutenant Governor Gavin Newsom, and University of California President and former Secretary of Homeland Security Janet Napolitano.

Thank you for your steadfast dedication and support of USF.

Alumni and friends who have expressed their commitment to USF through their planned gift are welcomed into the Lo Schiavo Legacy Society. The society honors the example of Fr. John Lo Schiavo, whose inspired leadership at USF spanned over six decades. Society members like you help carry on Fr. Lo's legacy of enduring devotion to Jesuit values through education. Your gift enriches the experience of all students by supporting efforts to recruit top faculty, expand academic programs and respond to the emerging needs of our campus and our world. Thank you.

Best regards,

Your Gift Planning Team
